

Boursot's Wine Collection, Ardres, near Calais, offers you the perfect invitation.

The perfect day trip to France.

Ardres is a typically beautiful French village on the country road to St Omer; it is an easy drive of only 10 minutes from Calais. The old cobbled square is charming, the architecture traditionally stunning. Ardres is real France, as it should be, and it's wonderful!

Great restaurants, relaxed street cafés, quaint yet some how intriguing shops, why would anyone stay in Calais? France is about exploring. Park the car, amble across the square, and enjoy a truly memorable gastronomic lunch, with a complimentary aperitif, courtesy of Boursot's Wine Collection.

Expertise and advice we all need, at a price we can all afford.

Having experienced an unforgettable lunch why not visit Boursot's Wine Collection?

Buying French wine in France was once daunting; Boursot's Wine Collection makes buying wine enjoyable, easy and rewarding. Boursot's expert advice will ensure you buy the right wine at the best price.

All Boursot's staff are English and very happy to help. Every customer that spends over €100 receives a case of wine completely free of charge - just mention ferrycheap.com.

Location, location, location. Boursot's Wine Collection is easy to find, situated just 10 miles from Calais. Take the N43 and head towards St Omer. When you reach the main junction in Ardres head straight on towards the village centre. Park in the main square, or next to the church, Boursot's Wine Collection is adjacent to the church, opposite a fantastic restaurant called Le Francois Premier.

Why not call Boursot's Wine Collection prior to your visit; the staff will happily prepare a wine tasting upon your arrival or make a restaurant reservation on your behalf.
